

Toccoa House Properties is pleased to introduce our own photographer, Cody T. Smith (Smith Photography), who is available for a variety of group and individual photos while at our property, or other local destination. Being naturally gifted with a great eye for staged and impromptu settings, Cody is available by appointment for weddings, family reunions, and group activities. Since he is familiar with all of our cabins and property, he is able to suggest particular spots to suit each situation and group. As he likes to say, he is "in the memory business."
